

A SHAMEFUL SLAUGHTER

Begins at 9 o'Clock, Monday Morning the 18th
At the American Shoe Co's. Store, 113 San Antonio Street

This entire stock of New Shoes for everybody must be sold out or as nearly so as possible, as their place of business will be moved to 110 Mesa Ave., next to Silberberg's. They want to move as little of the stock as possible, and they have only 15 days to remain in their present location. They have decided to throw their entire stock on the market at slaughter prices.

$15,000—THINK OF IT!—$15,000

Worth of newest, snappiest Shoes and Slippers for men, women and children to be thrown at your disposal. This sale lasts until the night of October 2nd.

We can't quote you prices here; it would be impossible, and in this case it will be necessary for you to see the goods, to realize what you are being offered.

Please don't class this as a simple announcement, and stay away until the stock is so broken that it will be impossible for you to get your size, but come Monday so that you can get first pick and show your neighbors, so they can get some of the grapes.

Extra salesmen will be on hand to see that everybody gets waited on, and if you don't lay in a supply for the season, you lose money.

Bear in mind this is the cleanest, newest and biggest stock of Shoes ever thrown on the market in this manner in El Paso.

Fifteen days tells the tale. It's up to you to get supplied with the best, and save your dollars.

Remember, It's the American Shoe Store
And It Starts at 9 o'Clock Monday Morning the 18th

WEDDINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hay announce the engagement of their daughter, Amy, to J. W. Bradley, of Sanders, Texas. The wedding will occur some time during the fall, but no definite date has been set.

The marriage of Miss Alice Mills to Dr. A. T. Jones, of Kallaw, Okla., on last Saturday evening, has been announced here. Miss Mills has spent a number of winters in El Paso and is well known here. She was a musician of prominence and took a leading part in the Shrine benefit which was given here two years ago.

The approaching marriage of Miss Helen Holland, of this city, to Benjamin Kidd, of Mason, Texas, has been announced to occur on next Wednesday at the home of the bride in East El Paso. The bride is originally from Mason, where she met her future husband, and the marriage is the culmination of a romance beginning in childhood. She has lived in El Paso the last four years and is a young business woman of the city.

The groom is a wealth cattleman of Mason. They will leave immediately after the ceremony for Mason, their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Sims, who were married at the home of the bride in Houston on September 13, have arrived in the city and will be at home to friends at 1110 Nevada street.

The bride is well known in El Paso, having been one of the popular teachers last year in the Mesa school.

The groom has lived here the past two years, coming to this city from Atlanta, Ga., and is connected with the wholesale firm of Ullman and Kauffman.

Thursday evening, at the parsonage of the Trinity M. E. church, at 8 o'clock, William H. Crane and Mrs. Cora L. Fairman were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Wright.

The groom is a mining man of California, who has recently come here to locate, and the bride is from Holly Ridge, N. C.

They will make their home in this city.

Complimentary to Miss Eva Hunter, Miss Sue Latner will entertain with a miscellaneous shower at her home next Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. P. McFadyen will give a miscellaneous shower on Monday evening in honor of Miss Helen Holland.

The wedding of Miss Hazel Bandie to Stanley L. Scott will take place Sunday.

DISFIGURED WITH SCALES AND CRUSTS

Eczema from Top of Head to Waist.
Suffered Untold Agony and Pain.
Doctors Said It Could Not Be Cured.
Set of Cuticura Remedies Successful When All Else Had Failed.

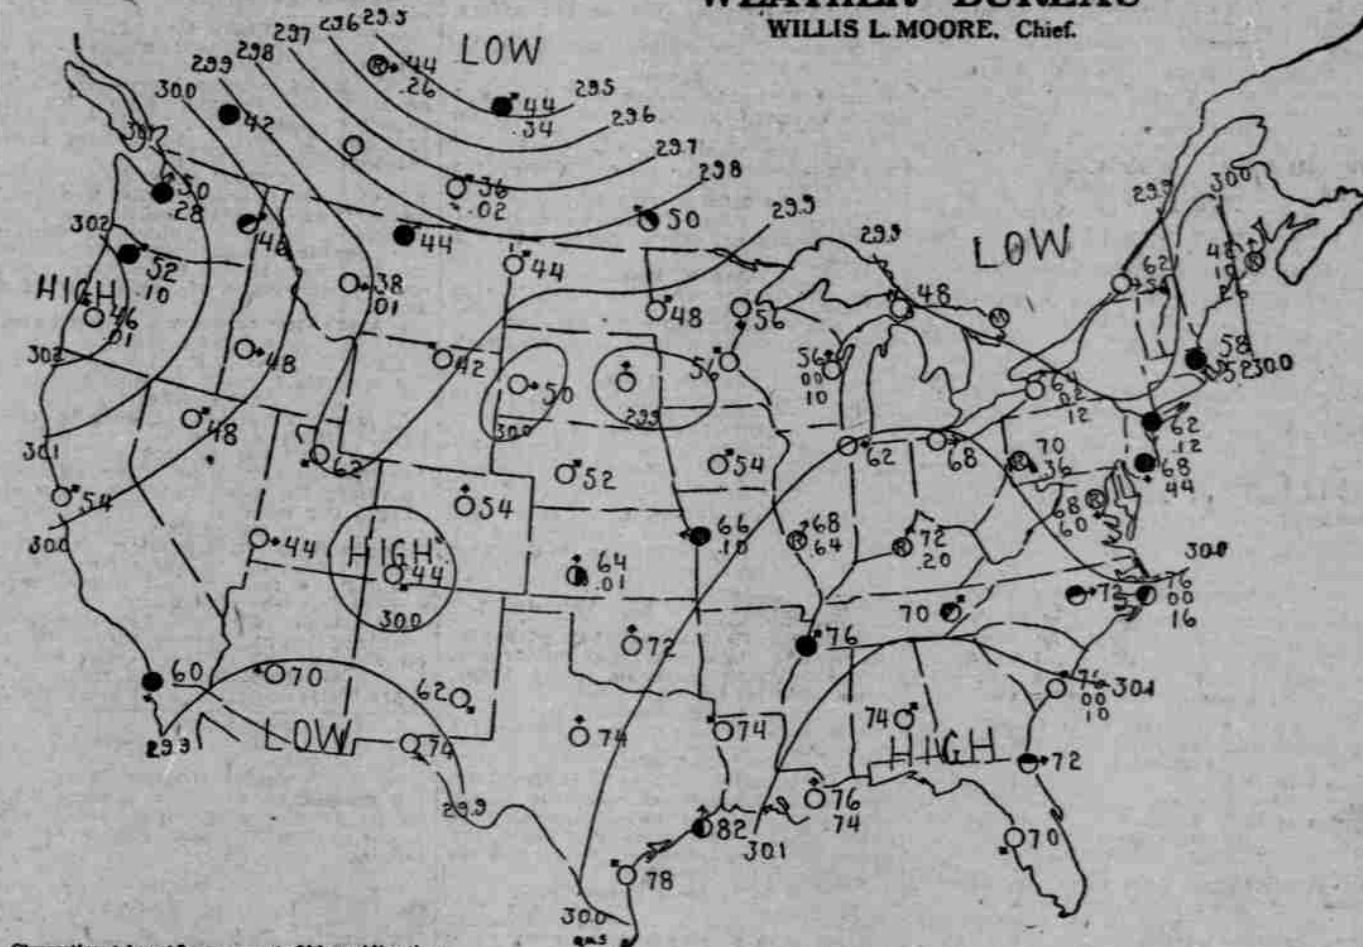

"Some time ago I was taken with eczema from the top of my head to my waist. It began with scales on my body. I suffered untold itching and burning, and could not sleep. I was greatly disfigured with scales and crusts. My ears looked as if they had been most cut off with a razor, and my neck was perfectly raw. I suffered untold agony and pain. I tried two doctors who said I had eczema in its fullest stage, and that it could not be cured. I then tried other remedies to no avail. At last, I tried a set of the genuine Cuticura Remedies, which cured me. Cuticura Remedies cured me of eczema when all else had failed, therefore I cannot praise them too highly.

"I suffered with eczema about ten months, but am now entirely cured, and I believe Cuticura Remedies are the best skin cure there is." (Signed) Miss Mattie J. Shaffer, R. F. D. 1, Box 8, Dancy, Miss., Oct. 27, 1910.

"I had suffered from eczema about four years when boils began to break out on different parts of my body. It started with a fine red rash. My back was affected first, when it also spread over my face. The itching was almost unbearable at times. I tried different soaps and salves, but nothing seemed to help me until I began to use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. One box of them cured me entirely. I recommended them to my sister for her baby who was troubled with eczema, and they completely cured her baby." (Signed) Mrs. F. L. Marberger, Drexelsville, Pa., Sept. 6, 1910.

Although Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a liberal sample of each, with 22-page booklet on the skin and hair, will be sent, post-free, on application to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 418, Boston.

day afternoon at the bride's home, 2913 Magnolia, at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Hatchell officiating. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the family will be present. Mr. and Mrs. Scott will leave for San Francisco, their future home.

In honor of Miss Lorena Holt, a bride of the latter part of the month, Miss Eva Hunter and Miss Theo Patterson entertained very delightfully on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Hunter.

The method of presenting the shower to the honor guest was most unique. The many beautiful gifts were done up in brown paper and wrapping cord, to represent the usual grocery package, and labeled the "bride's first grocery order."

A feature of the afternoon's entertainment was the acrostic rhyme writing by the guests, in which the letters of Miss Holt's name, "Lorena," were used at the beginning of each line. Two course refreshments were enjoyed. The jokes, suggestive of the occasion, were served in the form of hearts.

Mrs. F. L. Hunter, Mrs. L. L. Robinson and Mrs. C. L. Overstreet assisted the hostesses in entertaining their guests, who were: Misses Ola Baker, Florence Reed, Beatrice McGhee, Hattie Mae Loretz, Marian Campbell, Kate Krause, Adele Paxton, Jennie Anderson, Mary Holt and Miss McWaters; Mesdames C. L. Overstreet, L. L. Robinson, George Helde, Edward Hodge, F. L. Hunter and Mrs. Levering.

Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 813 San Marcial street, was that of George Chant and Miss Zema Stoffer.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Perry J. Rice, and witnessed by a large number of friends. The house was attractively decorated in a color effect of pink and white, intermingled with touches of green. The attendants were Miss Ruby Bennett, who assisted as maid of honor, and Russell McMillan, who acted as best man. The bride was daintily gowned in white hand embroidered tulle, and made in empire style.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stoffer, of this city. She has lived here the past four years and has many friends.

The groom is connected with the Southwestern railroad. After a short wedding trip to the groom's former home at Carrizozo, N. M., they will be at home to their friends at 518 Alameda street.

Of interest to a large number of El Pasoans will be the news received by Mrs. R. P. Campbell announcing the marriage of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Susie Cherry Campbell, to C. L. Fontaine, on Thursday, September 14, in Los Angeles, Cal.

The bride, who was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cherry, grew to womanhood in this city and received her education in the El Paso schools. She was one of El Paso's most attractive and popular women, was well known in social circles, and has here a host of friends.

Mr. Fontaine at one time resided in El Paso, but more recently has lived in Galveston and Wichita Falls, Texas. He is largely identified with the railroad interests of east Texas, being the general friend and passenger agent of the Wichita Falls & Northwestern Railroad company of Texas, and also freight and passenger agent for the Wichita Falls & Southern railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Fontaine have gone to Denver on their bridal tour, after which they will be at home in Wichita Falls.

A. N. Munn and bride will arrive Monday on their way to their future home in Phoenix, Ariz. Mr. and Mrs. Munn were married August 23, in Lawrence, N. C., and have been sojourning in the New England states and Canada. Mr. Munn was for many years machine foreman of the C. & S. A. shops here.

PARTIES.

Miss Maybelle Hood, of Chihuahua, was the honored guest Thursday afternoon at a reception given by Miss Rachel Harper at her home on Rio Grande street.

The house was tastefully decorated with pink carnations and ferns distributed about the apartments in cut glass vases.

The dining table presented a charming picture with its handsome cover of Battenberg lace and floral adornment of pink carnations and ferns. The punch table was also spread with Battenberg, and those serving were Misses Clara Mayer, Margaret Caples and Mildred Hood. The dainty ices, cakes and bonbons further accentuated the color plan of pink and white.

Assisting the hostess were her mother, Mrs. Florence Harper, and Miss Louise Sanburn. The guests enjoying the occasion were: Misses Olive Davis, Wilma Elliott, Katie Stoker, Theo Patterson, Daisy Wilson, Josie Wooten, Louise Sanburn, Hattie Mae Loretz, Clara Fink, Gertrude Ellis, Katharine Warren, Lillian Lockwood, Lee Perry, Margaret Caples, Guida Mayer, Mildred Hood, Maybelle Bryan, Margaret Prude, Mesdames J. R. Harper, N. R. Crozier, Belle F. Beach, Frank Spencer, Mary Deason, George Payne, J. E. Rhein, Anne Harris, Monroe Harper.

Miss Marion Young, who leaves Monday to enter Kendallworth college, in Austin, was the honor guest at an enjoyable party given by Miss Blanche Garvin Friday evening.

Bunco was the game of the evening in which attractive prizes were given to the successful players.

A color scheme of pink and white was carried out, both in the refreshments and the floral adornments. Those in attendance were: Misses Marian Young, Mary Leighton, Edith Perrenot, Bettie Brown, Birdie Hawkins, Pauline Bryan, Linnie Hoty, Clara Fink, Alma Morrison; Messrs. Robert Hoover, Switzer, Turner, Frank Ross, Nelson Rice, Leon Ronan, Ralph Boman, Jack Smith, Leroy Pickens.

Mrs. Joseph Thew was tendered a surprise on Wednesday evening by a few of her friends. Cards were exchanged and after the usual number of games luncheon was served.

Miss Bessie Little entertained Wednesday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Florence Lee, of Corpus Christi, Tex.

Cards, dancing and music were the features of the evening. Refreshments were served by little Miss Rosalie Little.

First prize for women was won by Miss Etheldreda Gorman, while the consolation prize was won by Miss Virginia Ryan.

Clifford Perkins won first prize for men and John Kindig won the men's consolation.

Those present were: Misses Nita Beck, Alice Buckley, Mary Carson, Virginia Ryan, Etheldreda Gorman, Willie May Kyle, Florence Lee, Bessie Little, Messrs. Clifford Perkins, Clarence Harter, John Kindig, Leo Schuster, Billie Collins, Lyle Perkins, Vernon Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Sowles, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Little.

The home of Miss Frieda Rheinhold-mer was the scene of a very pleasant surprise on Friday evening, when 30 friends took possession of it, being the eve of her departure for Huntsville, Tex., where she will spend the winter at the Normal school.

The guests presented her with a shower of many very pretty articles for use while away. Refreshments were served.

The first social meeting of the season given by the Elks was held last evening in the club house on Myrtle avenue.

The social was not only for Elks and their families, but for their invited friends, and was intended as a special compliment to the women, who were enthusiastic in their appreciation of the affair. Dr. J. W. Ward, exalted ruler, and his entertainment committee spared no effort in providing a good program and making the affair a success.

Judge J. R. Harper presided as toastmaster and in calling the social session to order, paid a graceful compliment to the wives, daughters and sweethearts of the Elks, and to the women of the southwest. Over 300 guests were in attendance, completely filling the east and west courts, as well as the spacious balconies. An excellent program of entertainment was given as follows:

Vocal solo, "Then You'll Remember Me," Edward J. Kelly.

Group of plantation songs, Gunther Lessing.

Violin and piano duet, W. W. Bridgers and Miss Sara Bridgers.

Boxing contest, Messrs. Brown and McGowan.

Piano solo, Miss Anna Stolaroff.

Wrestling bout, Messrs. Dorris and Romero.

One of the chief musical features of the evening was the excellent rendition of the sextet from "Lucia di Lammermoor," by Mrs. Parvin Witte, Mrs. C. E. Pollock, Messrs. Parvin Witte, J. G. McNary, H. M. MacCullum and Wallace Morris. Mrs. J. G. McNary served as accompanist.

An abundant luncheon was served at the conclusion of the program, after which those who wished to dance repaired to the ballroom upstairs, where refreshing punch and lemonade were served.

Mrs. Hal Christy entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Margan Grossman, nee Miss Pauline Sprin, at her home on Gladstone street. A hampered brass percolator was presented to Mrs. Grossman by her girl friends.

A two course luncheon was served to the guests by the hostess, Mrs. Christy. Those present were: Kate Adams, Adine Noake, Loretta Brick, Lucile Smith, Elsie Lurkin, Effie Connelly, Lillian Crawford, Mesdames Julius Lorentzen, Hal Christy and Morgan Grossman.

Miss Mildred Connolly will entertain Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Grossman.
